SURREY'S CHRISTMAS LIGHTS TRAIL

🎄Two days of Surrey Holiday Magic with millions of lights, a tiny Christmas train, free outdoor skating under a 60 ft lit-up tree and the top local free holiday light displays. Plus, cozy local stop and warm sips along the way.

DAY 1

LIGHTS STOP & SHOPPING

🎄 Kick off Day 1 at Western Canada's Largest Christmas Store. Potters Garden Centre turns into 28,000 sq ft of holiday magic. It's free to wander, and it's way too easy to lose an hour in here. Great for gifts or just soaking up the glow. Start your late morning here. (19158 48 Ave)

ELENA'S CAFE

Lunch like a local, with a picture printed on your coffee! Order in at Elena's and save room for the Carrot Bundt Cake and Pistachio Tart. Then wander the historic streets and pop into the local independent shops before your next stop.to stop in. (5630 176 Street)

LIGHTS STOP: NOEL FESTIVAL & BRIGHT NIGHTS

🎄Millions of lights, plus an indoor village for rainy nights. Main event: Noel Festival with Bright Nights magic. Get there around dusk to watch the lights glow on, then grab hot cocoa, local food and a fire pit. Part of every ticket supports the BC Burn Fund. Grab your tickets early. (17763 62 Ave)

HOLIDAY INN & SUITES SURREY EAST-CLOVERDALE

Skip the late drive home. A room just minutes from Noel Holiday Lights Festival. Stay out late for the lights, then head to a cozy bed instead of a late drive. (17530 64 Ave)

ZIKR | INDIAN RESTAURANT WHISPERS OF INDIAN FLAVOURS

Need a late bite? Warm up with Indian food steps from your room. Zikr is inside the Holiday Inn & Suites East and is part of the Surrey Spice Trail. It's an easy, cozy end to a long day of lights. (17530 64 Ave)

DAY 2

BREAKFAST AT UNION LATINO'S

Day 2 begins with breakfast with a Colombian accent, on the Surrey Spice Trail. This family-run North Surrey spot serves dishes from across Colombia. Think cheesy empanadas, arepas and traditional plates made for sharing. Come hungry! (13569 105A Street)

LIGHTS STOP & SKATING

🎄Free outdoor skating, and it's covered if the weather turns. Lace up (rentals are about $5), then wander the plaza lights and snap photos under the giant 60 ft tree. It's all right beside Surrey Central SkyTrain. (13450 104 Ave)

COFFEE BREAK

Thaw out with a specialty hot chocolate or coffee. Prado is just steps from the skating, inside the Civic Hotel. Look up while you sip, because the architecture is worth a minute of your time. (13495 Central Ave)

CITY CENTRE LIBRARY

A cozy breather between the rink and your next treat. Grab a book or admire the striking architecture. It's free, quiet and one of Surrey's picturesque landmarks. (10350 University Drive)

PLAN YOUR VISIT

🎄 WHEN TO GO: Mid-November to early January. Each display has its own opening and closing dates, so check before heading out.

🎄 BEST TIME TO VISIT: Go after dark. Lights look best from about 5 pm in December.

🎄 BOOK AHEAD: Noel Festival and the Bear Creek Park Christmas Train both sell tickets. Get yours early, especially for weekends.

🎄 GETTING AROUND: Day 2's skating, coffee and library stops are all near Surrey Central SkyTrain and easy to do on foot. The light displays are easiest by car, and parking is free at Bear Creek Park.

🎄 DRESS FOR THE WEATHER: Bring layers and an umbrella. The skating rink is covered, and Noel Festival has an indoor village for rainy nights.

🎄 BE A GOOD NEIGHBOUR: Home displays are set up by local residents. Keep voices low, stay off lawns and don't block driveways.

🎄 SHARE YOUR MOMENTS: Use #SurreyChristmasLights and tag @DiscoverSurreyBC for a chance to be featured.
